

Question:

Assalaamu Alaikum

Is it permitted to attend weddings if:

- 1) there is freemixing between men -&- women freely
- 2) men -&- women r present in the same hall but are on different sides, with no barrier in between the sides and does this apply to going to witness the nikaah, eating the food provided to u as a guest or to both?

please reply soon

Answer:

Assalamu Aleikum

Sheikh Omar answered this question before as follows:

Free mixing is not allowed at the Nikah or Walima or even at public talks controlled by us, rather segregation needs to be observed in all places we control. The Walima or Nikah can have egregated mixing as long as there is an Islamic talk or whilst the Nikah is being conducted otherwise the men and women must sit in separate places when the eating and entertainment begins.
