

Question:

Why do you and your followers (IN EVERY TALK OR CONVERSATION) keep stressing that Muslims are oblige to follow and practice their Deen wherever they are"!! WHY? Can you provide any evidence to support this?

Answer:

Any general or unrestricted request or command (to do or not to) in the Quran or in the Sunnah will continue general and unrestricted until a divine text (i.e. verse or Hadith) specify or restrict...

Whosoever, restricted or specified the general of the unrestricted request or command of Allah (swt) or His messenger by a time, place, region (Majal) intentionally without a divine text from Quran and Sunnah is an apostate or Kafir...

Allah (swt) says: " Then strive all of you towards all that is good (Islam) WHERESOEVER YOU ARE, Allah will bring you together. For Allah Has power over all things" [EMQ 2:148] and many other verses....

And in many Ahadeeth the sahabah mentioned for example in abysinnia to the king: "Allah (swt) sent to us the messenger to guide us to worship Allah, not to worship man or idols, to pray and to speak truth, and to commend good and to forbid evil WHERESOEVER WE ARE.... etc... and the same in the Ahdeeth of the second Bai'yah....

There is no single verse or hadith stated to me that to pray, fast or to work to establish Allah's (deen) or to abide by Islam in the UK, USA? but because the commands in the verses and the ahadeeth are general and restricted that is why we oblige to pray, fast and to work to establish the Khilafah...
