- Kamalism: It was also agreed that Mustafa Kamal's policies and attitude against Islam was completely and entirely wrongs (kufr).
- Sanctions: It was discussed that the policies of America against Pakistan would never be tolerated and the state would not bow down to external pressure as it has enough resources inside the state to survive and to progress.
- Social System: The role of women in Islam was discussed, along with the dress code and the rights given to women in Islam.
- Economic System: Principles of circulation of wealth, and taxes were discussed. Advice was given on seizing bank accounts and making sure that investments were made within the state to expand industry and agriculture.
