Assalaamu Alaikum

I would like to know what happens if a woman gets pregnant as a result of her being raped? who is responsible for the child? What are the rights and duties of the woman and child? if the rapist has a role in this-what happens if he is not caught?

Please do not remove this question like last time- please let me know if you do not have the answer

JazakAllahkhair. Salamalaikum.

Assalamu Aleikum

In the case of rape the rapist will get a capital punishment...

However, if he is not caught... he has no role to play whatsoever in relation to the woman and the baby...

1. The woman must keep the pregnancy and look after the baby....
2. The Woman must breastfed the baby to become Mother by breastfeeding.
3. The Islamic State i.e. the Khalifah (if he is exist) or the nearest Muslims to her are obliged to help her in all what she
4. need for herself and the baby...
5. The baby will be attributed to her...
6. The Almighty Allah will reward the Mother for that difficult test...
